this book explores how religious doctrines influence launching a new venture it examines 16 christian denominations and 9 world religions and how they would reasonably be expected to apply more than 20 distinct doctrines each to entrepreneurship it is not an examination of doctrinal veracity because adherents have confidence in their beliefs rather it examines how they will evaluate the attractiveness of entrepreneurship through the lenses of their beliefs assuming they receive what they expect more than 100 years ago max weber pitted protestantism against hinduism in a single hypothesis the current study is a multifactorial examination that covers the world s major religions as well as most of their doctrines it is the first comprehensive examination of how entrepreneurs view the world through the lenses of their religious doctrines which represent the formalization of their most deeply held beliefs american moravians and their neighbors 1772 1822 edited by ulrike wiethaus and grant mcallister offers an interdisciplinary examination of moravian americanization in the early republic with an eye toward the communities that surrounded moravian settlements in the southeast the contributors examine cultural social religious and artistic practices of exchange and imposition framed by emergent political structures that encased social privilege and marginalization through their multidisciplinary approach the authors convincingly argue that moravians encouraged assimilation converged with core values and political forces of the early republic but also contributed uniquely moravian innovations residual newly dominant and increasingly subjugated discourses among moravians other european settlers indigenous nations and free and enslaved communities of color established the foundations of a new moravian american identity contributors include craig d atwood david bergstone david blum stewart carter martha b hartley geoffrey r hughes winelle kirton roberts grant p mcallister thomas j mccullough paul peucker charles d rodenbough john ruddiman jon f sensbach larry e tise riddick weber and ulrike wiethaus are you happily married are you disappointed with your spouse are you thinking of giving up your marriage do you want to have a better understanding of your marriage do you want to improve your marriage dr stefanus mantik and his wife priscilla had gone through a period where their marriage seemed to be dying however by gods grace their marriage was restored in not just a fairy tale dr mantik shares some biblical principles that have helped their marriage based on gods word you will learn the original design of marriage and how to re ignite romance and a love life that may have become stale your marriage may not be a fairy tale but you could have a blessed marriage that is better than a fairy tale stowell shows you what happens when an ordinary man or woman pursues not the trappings of christianity by christ himself in this fresh more structural alternative to other texts for the marriage and family course seccombe and warner provide a comprehensive look at close relationships and the family in just 15 chapters examining close relationships and families by placing them in social context the authors offer a unique emphasis on the structural and relational aspects of the family with a focus on family resilience the text weaves together a macro view social structural analysis of close relationships with the macro an individualist view the authors demonstrate the interaction of theory and methodology in family studies in chapter 2 and blend cutting edge research and practical applications throughout among the highlights of this first edition are the exceptionally thorough exploration of the topics of singlehood and cohabitation in chapter 7 and the unique six chapter core 8 13 that focuses on all aspects of parenthood and the challenges and crises that families face today the authors emphasis on family resilience and how families can be strengthened is reflected in the constructing strong families boxes that appear throughout the text these features encourage students to apply groundbreaking research on what makes a family strong to their own families and in the concluding chapter looking ahead helping families flourish which examines the factors that successful families regardless of ethnicity culture or social class consistently exhibit the theoretical world of entrepreneurship contains the first and most comprehensive examination of more than 250 theories applicable to the study of entrepreneurship it includes a theoretical examination of current social and economic controversies that impact entrepreneurs following in weber s tradition it also compares the doctrines of 16 christian denominations and nine world religions which offer different conceptual windows for understanding entrepreneurs the title of this volume sacred marriages consciously plays with the traditional concept of sacred marriage but the plural form sacred marriages gives the reader an idea that something more is at stake here than a monomaniacal idea of manifestations deriving from a single prototype following the guidelines of one of the contributors ruben zimmermann the editors tentatively define sacred marriage as a real or symbolic union of two complementary entities imagined as gendered in a religious context sacred marriages plural then refers to various expressions of this kind of union in different cultures that seek to overcome to cite zimmermann again the great dualism of human and cosmic existence the subtitle indicates that the contributors are primarily interested in different aspects of the divine human sexual metaphor that is the imagining and reenactment of a gendered relationship between the human and divine worlds this metaphor which is essentially about relationship rather than sexual acts can find textual ritual mythical and social expressions in different times and places indeed the sacred marriage ritual itself should be considered not a manifestation of the sacralized power of sexuality experienced in sexual intercourse but one way of objectifying the divine human sexual metaphor
